Assignment-13

1.) Write about points of parity?

* Basic product features:

The essential characteristics that customers expect in a product category.

* competitive similarity.

Features that make a brand similar to its competitors so that customer see it as an acceptable choice.

* Industry standards.

meeting the quality, performance and service standards required in the market

* customer expecations.

providing the common benefits that customer expect form all brands in that category.

* market entry requirement

without points of parity, brand cannot effectively complete in the market.

J.D